- 3.3.2. Should the issue be unresolved, a member of the Ministry and Personnel Committee may be asked to coordinate discussion of the concern with the parties involved. The Chair of the Board shall be informed.
- 3.3.3. Should the issue still be unresolved, a member of the Ministry and Personnel Committee will act on behalf of the person who raised the concern using their name and outlining the specific concern. The Chair of the Board shall be informed.
- 3.4. Issues of harassment, including sexual harassment are very serious and should be raised immediately with any Ministry and Personnel Committee member.
